To Whom it May Concern,

I have experienced nothing short of superior service and outstanding quality work when working with Wahab Construction. As a luxury residential real estate professional and a highly satisfied client of Walid, I can attest that Wahab is the epitome of efficiency and organization of construction management of luxury projects...this coupled with his artistic vision and meticulous attention to detail confirmed he was the best choice to me.

Wahab built and managed one of my personal luxury projects – a beautiful Penthouse residence at The Bath Club on Miami Beach. Walid and his team not only carried out the project on time, but it exceeded my expectations. To date, the residence still remains in beautiful condition with everything functioning perfectly, which is a testament to the manner in which Wahab constructed my Penthouse. As an owner, I know I can trust Walid and his team to provide the utmost quality in luxury construction & management. I consider their team the top choice in boutique construction management in Miami. I would recommend Wahab Construction as the most exquisite choice for top quality contracting work that is managed professionally from start to finish.

Sincerely,
